Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and soothe your throat and bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has consistently warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good!
Very good! Hereafter, when you buy a Cough Mixture, look for the name of Dr. Shoop on the label, and none in the medicine else it must be law on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be the best that has ever been made, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the differences. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

PROSECUTION
FOR FISH IN CHICAGOState's Attorney Proposes to Look Into Charges Made by Harahan.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—The charges by J. T. Harahan that Stuyvesant Fish, while he was president of the Illinois Central, borrowed 1½ million dollars from the company on inadequate security have been taken up by the state's attorney, Mr. Healy.
Today the state official said that an investigation of the charges will be made and if they are found to be true the entire matter will be placed before the grand jury.

"I intend to find out what the facts are on which the charges of President Harahan are based," said Mr. Healy. "And I shall then seek to learn whether the acts of Mr.
Fish, if illegal, were in violation of the Illinois or New York statutes and whether the Illinois or New York state courts or the federal courts have jurisdiction. The charges made by Mr. Harahan are too serious to be overlooked. From my present information I cannot tell that an offense has been committed. Even if one were I could not be sure that it was committed here or in New York City. If, however, I obtain information showing that Mr. Harahan's charges are true and the alleged misappropriation of funds occurred in this city this office certainly will take action. No complaint has been presented to me and I would require further information as to whether the alleged misuse of the funds constituted a crime."

Will Begin at Once.
The investigation, it was said, will begin immediately. If the state's attorney finds that the Cook county courts have jurisdiction, officials of the Illinois Central, it is believed, will be subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury and asked to produce the books and records of the company. News that Mr. Healy had interested himself in the charges against Mr. Fish came as a surprise to officials of the Illinois Central. At Mr. Harahan's office it was said that Harahan was prepared to substantiate the statements contained in his circular letter to stockholders, but he had nothing further to add now.

Fish Ignores Harriman.
New York, Sept. 28.—"I have more money today than at any time in the last fifteen years," said Stuyvesant Fish.

The six-foot, broad shouldered financier seemed amused to think that the open letter of J. T. Harahan, president of the Illinois Central railroad, might give anyone the impression that he is obliged to mortgage his house and tie up his income. When asked if the sudden calling of the 1½ million dollar loan he had secured from the railroad had compelled a lasting curtailment of expenses or had interfered with Mrs. Fish's Newport campaign, Mr.
Fish said:

Not Worrying.
"I would not discuss my wife's affairs with anyone, but I can assure you that I do not care a snap about the social world myself, but I probably am better able to spend money today than ever before and I am spending it as I see fit." Aside from the reply of Mr. Fish to the seeming attack upon his financial credit, financiers, throughout the country are interested in the probability of the revelation of secrets in the Fish-Harriman struggle.
Regarding the Harahan charges he said:

Of Whole Cloth.
"They are made of whole cloth and my present intention is not to notice them. You will find them in Mr. Harriman's testimony given before the interstate commerce commission last February."
"But, Mr. Fish, can you afford to pass by the charge that the Illinois Central borrowed $1,500,000 from the defunct Trust Company of the Republic and that the road had made a loss?" asked the reporter.

"There's little in that," he replied.
"There were loans made to Daniel Leroy Dresser, as loans are made every day to persons seeking money, but that you will find in Harriman's testimony."

"Was the money paid back and did the Illinois Central suffer a loss?"
"Yes. The road did lose money, but not much. Of course, I made a loan to Dresser, as I made to individuals and banking corporations made loans to them."
